Bridge--- A Little Boy Hurt. Brief Mention.

MANCHESTER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES, No. 1121 HULL STREET, BEATTIE BLOCK,

A very pretty marriage took place Wedesday night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Neal, in Swansboro, when Miss Ida Neal and Mr. Hope Lee were united, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. T. Tucker.

The bride, an attractive young lady, as attired in a becoming evening gown cream-colored cloth, trimmed with bite satin ribbon, and carried bride's ses. The minister received the young couple standing under an arch of flowers, and performed the ceremony is an im-

The maid of honor was Miss Mabel Eliot, who was also attired in a cream colored gown. The ushers were Mersts. James Neal (best man), James Lyne, and R. L. Wilkinson. After the ceremony a reception was held.

The young bride and groom, who are extremely popular, received a number of bandsome and useful bridal presents. A DIVORCE SUIT.

In the Hustings Court yesterday morning a decree was entered in the case of Walthall vs. Walthall Mr. Charles R. Walthall sues for a divorce from his wife, Mrs. Sarah Walthall, and counsel for the defendant made a motion yesterday for the allowance of money for legal and maintenance expenses pending the deci-sion of the case. The Court ordered that the plaintiff should pay $40 for prelimimary haw expenses and fig a month for maintenance, and that the case should not be proceeded with until such pay-A NEW BRIDGE.

Master W. R. Bowle, grandson of Cap-tain Walter Bowle, 200 west Grace street and son of Mrs. Russell Bowle, 113 cast Frankin street, returns from Bellevue High School loaded with honors.

High School loaded with honors.

Besides numerous certificates of proficiency, he has two medals—one of silver and one of gold. Master Bowle is evidently a bimerallist, and unlike the fashion set by recent political conventions, he sports both metals. The silver medal is for good "conduct," and the gold medal for scholarship—two traits that mark the man in every boy. If the gold and silver planks in the party platforms had the same significance, the people would probably not be so divided on the question. The friends of this bright Virginia boy are proud of him.

Several Magistrate's Cases.

With the exception of several unimportant magistrate's cases, nothing of importance transpired at the Henrico County Court-house yesterday.
William Allen, (colored), was brought before 'Squire Tyler, charged with stealing a horse from Ida L. Andrews. The case was continued until today.
